An Indianapolis paper thinks there is no danger of the Hoosier stock running out, for its editor met an old gentleman the other day taking his family out a nutting, and [illegible] him for a Sunday [illegible] or a country [illegible].

A Nashville dispatch mentions that a man named B. F. Hayne, the author of a [illegible] advocating that "the [illegible] is a beast and has no soul," is to be tried there for murder. It is not surprising that a man who [illegible] should be brought to trial for [illegible] offense.

The number of workmen engaged in the building trades in England is estimated at 840,210 persons. Of these, 294,133 are [illegible] and joiners, 117,452 masons, 80,391 bricklayers, 28,821 plasterers, 27,987 quarrymen, [illegible] makers, 218,685 laborers, whilst the others belong to smaller trades.

Near Sh[illegible], Texas, recently, Mrs. B[illegible], a widow lady, met her death in a singular manner. She was in the act of getting on a horse, when a common sewing needle, which [illegible] in her dress, caught in the saddle and was driven into her body near the breast, slightly [illegible] her heart. She lived only about half an hour.

George Washington's watch has turned up in Tennessee. It is in the hands of ex-rebel [illegible] Bushrod Johnson, who got it from Major Polk, of Maury county, Tennessee, who procured it from a Union soldier, who "found" it [illegible] Washington. The watch, which is a [illegible] bull's eye time-piece, will be forwarded to G[illegible] Robert E. Lee.

Henry Ward Beecher says when men go to church and get nothing but oat straw, and straw raised five hundred years ago, and [illegible] at that, and will not come again, he knows [illegible]. As long as human nature remains true to [illegible] it is, he does not believe the [illegible] will [illegible] to [illegible] to the rack when there is [illegible] they [illegible]; and if they no not come it is [illegible] is nothing to eat.

Fast time is sometimes made on American railroads, and much faster time than passengers will generally feel comfortable under, considering the style of construction of some of the American roads. It is reported that ten miles in eight minutes was made between Hamburg and Buffalo the other day by a director's train on the New York Central Railroad — seventy-eight [illegible] an hour.

The total receipts from the theaters, dancing rooms, concerts and other places of public amusement in Paris, in the month of August, amounted to 2,346,308 francs, being a decrease of 43,508 francs on the previous month. During the five months that the Exhibition has been opened, the returns for those theatres alone have [illegible] [illegible] those of the corresponding period last year by 2,521,239 francs.

This is an age of engineering marvels. The Pacific Railway, the Hoosac tunnel, the railroads over and through Mount Cenis; the [illegible] suspension bridges built and projected across the Ohio and Mississippi rivers, and between New York and Brooklyn; the tunnel through the New Zealand volcano and the projected tunnel under the Straits of Dover, are a few of the labors with which engineering is making the nineteenth century famous.

When Dr. Holmes was on his way to Dartmouth, N. H., some years since, to deliver a literary address in place of Rufus Choate, who from ill health was unable to be present, some one asked him if he was going to fill Choate's place. "Fill Choate's place! fill Choate's place!" exclaimed the Doctor, "No I am going to rattle round in it." This, says the New Bedford Mercury, is precisely what Andrew Johnson is doing in the place once filled by Abraham Lincoln.

The New York Evening Post fears that the American people do too much riding. It says that with the increase of horse railroads and other cheap facilities for travel, many people forget, especially in cities, that walking is the best exercise that can be taken. Thousands of clerks and business and professional men, whose duties require them to sit in offices nearly the whole of the working hours, ride from and to their homes without having walked half a mile during the whole day. More walking and less riding, especially in pleasant weather, would be most conducive to health, and also prevent people from forgetting, as the Post fears they may, "the use of their legs."

OHIO.—The Republican vote of Ohio in October was 19,968 greater than in 1866, and 12,407 [illegible] than in 1864. Senator Sherman writes as follows to a friend in New York [illegible]:

"G[illegible]al Hays and the whole State ticket are elected by 3,000 majority, which we will make 50,000 next fall with [illegible]. We lost the State in 1862 by 6,000 majority, on the Emancipation Proclamation of Abraham Lincoln. The [illegible] we beat Vallandigham by 101,000 on the same issue. SATURDAY MORNING, NOV 23, 1867

Again in America.

Wherever the English language is read,—and a knowledge of the English language is now as wide as the globe —Charles Dickens is recognized the greatest living writer of fiction It is recorded by a traveler who a few years ago was passing through the wilds of what was then known in our country as the "Far West," that he saw a worn copy of Thomson's Seasons lying in the window of the humble cabin in the wilderness where he stopped for the night, and on seeing it the expression broke from his lips "This is fame!" Who that sees how widely Dickens' works are circulated, who that appreciates the powers of his genius and beholds the world delighted with his writings and united to do him homage, does not realize that his also is a true and enduring fame, far more real and substantial than that which has been achieved by many a conqueror of kingdoms, or many a founder of a race of kings? Probably no writer ever equalled Dickens in the number, variety, and originality of his characters. The most [illegible] portrayer of human nature since Shakespeare, very many of the characters with which he has peopled the realms of imagination are far better known to the generality of readers than are the famous names which have played a distinguished part in the actual history of the world His power is universally felt and as universally acknowledged. No pen has been so potent as his to carry [illegible] evils; none has done so much to [illegible], not only in individual character but in organized systems of absurdity and wrong. In Bleak House the [illegible] system of England is held up to detestation, in Little Dorrit the Circumlocution Office is made the object of merciless ridicule; in Nicholas Nickleby the flagrant outrages of those schools where brutality and ignorance take the place of proper government and ability to teach, are exposed to view The reforms which have been [illegible] by means of these and similar [illegible] are, in [illegible], beyond all calculation. Such a writer is one of the greatest benefactors of his race And what reader contemplating his portraits of individual character, is not lost in admiration at the versatility and resources of this [illegible] mind? Every humor of the mind, every quality of the heart, every passion of the [illegible]. The [illegible] by heart the story of Winkle's [illegible], of Sam Weller's shrewd [illegible]; of Tom Pinch's sweetest simplicity; of Jonas Chuzzlewit's unnatural and criminal avarice; of Sairey Gamp's [illegible] garrulity, of Mark Tapley's jolly good humor, of Pecksniff's and Uriah Heep's [illegible] hypocrisy, of Bunsby's and Mr. Dick's rare wisdom; of Captain Cuttle's [illegible] and exemplary [illegible]; of [illegible] disappointments, of [illegible] pompous [illegible]; of Skimpole's [illegible], of the [illegible]; of the Cheerybles' generous and hearty [illegible], of Chadband's and Stiggins' clerical [illegible], and of the [illegible] other [illegible] to the various [illegible] which [illegible] he has sent forth in [illegible] more than thirty [illegible]. In [illegible] the [illegible] and [illegible] has [illegible] him, and the [illegible] the [illegible]. It [illegible] to read his works without feeling his [illegible] for what is [illegible] in man, and his [illegible] of all that is hypocritical, [illegible]. Many American readers [illegible] in Martin Chuzzlewit and the American Notes but as this [illegible] was not [illegible] to be able also to laugh at such a portraiture of [illegible]. [illegible] he had dealt with his own countrymen quite as [illegible] as he has dealt with us. If he has [illegible], he has also painted a Gregsbury as a member of [illegible] he has laughed in [illegible] at the [illegible] of our [illegible] he has laughed in Pickwick with even [illegible] at the [illegible] of his own country.

His [illegible] visit to America was in the year [illegible], and now, [illegible] he returns [illegible], he may [illegible] very [illegible] he [illegible] before. But whether he will now find any Mrs. [illegible] or not, he certainly will [illegible]. While there are those who will not forgive him for what he has said [illegible], there will be multitudes [illegible] to extend him a cordial welcome [illegible] give him [illegible].

[illegible] Col. M. T. Simmons.—We find in the [illegible] of Col. M. T. Simmons, of Washington Territory. Col. Simmons is said to have been the first American [illegible] of the [illegible]. He was [illegible] with the early settlers of that region, and for [illegible] part in the affairs of the Territory. He was at one time largely interested in the [illegible] water power at Tumwater, at the head of the Bay two miles south of Olympia. Disposing of his interest at that place he moved to one of the numerous islets on the [illegible] side of the Sound about twenty miles from Olympia, [illegible] and clearing a farm in the forest. At this time he was largely interested in various [illegible]. He was also Indian Agent, a position which he held continuously for several years. The decline of the lumber [illegible] the [illegible] years ago caused him many losses, so that latterly he has been in somewhat straitened circumstances Col Simmons was a generous man, and as one of the [illegible] of the Territory, will be long [illegible].

Old Fogies to the Rear!—The New York World, the [illegible] journal of its party, says that the [illegible] which the Democracy held before the war have been outgrown and are obsolete Its [illegible] on the late elections are in striking contrast with the blatant [illegible] of the lesser lights of the party. "We rejoice," it says, "as much as any Democrats can in the recent encouraging triumphs, but our joy is deep and sober rather than exultant. We not unmindful of the temptations which beset a party when giddy elation [illegible] so suddenly after a long series of depressing [illegible]. By [illegible] and wisdom these [illegible] will be the vestibule of a [illegible] future for the Democratic party, but, on the other hand, [illegible] and [illegible] narrowness may make them the buds of a premature spring, nipped by renewed frosts, which blight all hope of autumnal fruits." In other words, all old fogies must go to the rear, and there must be no attempt to revive the doctrines which the party held in old times Democrats of Oregon, how do you like this advice, and the probability that one of "Lincoln's hirelings" will be your candidate for President?

In 1864 the Democrats of the United States, assembled in Convention at Chicago, resolved that the war as waged by the Government for the suppression of the rebellion was a failure. Ever since then they have been laboring to make that judgment good. Even now they are endeavoring to give public affairs such a turn that all the sacrifices of blood and treasure shall come to naught.

A Shameless Falsehood —The Lafayette Courier is jubilant because, as it says, Hon P. C. Sullivan of Polk county made a "Democratic speech" at Lafayette a few days ago. We are assured by gentlemen who heard the speech that the Courier's remarks about it are an entire fabrication. Mr Sullivan delivered a thorough Union speech, endorsing the policy of Congress and arguing very ably the necessity of supporting it. The Copperheads are in a bad way when they have to resort to such pitiful misrepresentation as this But it is just what might be expected from such a source A man who has no principles himself, who is a renegade from every political party which has had an existence since his own existence began, and who would be glad to find others as recreant as himself to keep him company and make such conduct as his respectable, may be [illegible] continually to descend to tricks of this reprehensible character

Forney writing from Liverpool says "The efforts of our Government to unify the coinage of the world, cordially met by Louis Napoleon and coldly received by England, will eventually triumph. Each nation will preserve its own vignette, but the value of the leading coins of the civilized nations will be the same everywhere, thus saving the tremendous losses under the present system, consequent upon the necessity of exchanging the coins of different weight, purity, and style."

Why is it that about eleven twelfths of the men who cannot read and write are Democrats? Why is it that 59 out of the 62 convicts in the State Penitentiary are Democrats? And why is it, that about seven eighths of the school teachers, and five-sixth of the preachers in the State are Union men? These are facts that any one who travels through the State with his eyes open cannot fail to see It is something that will do for honest Democrats to think about.

The National Intelligencer, the President's personal organ, speaking of the recent effort on the part of Western Democrats to pay off the debt in greenbacks, says "Demagogues have combined to influence the public mind in favor of a further expansion of the irredeemable paper currency which would inevitably be followed by a collapse of a most distressing character"

Every Copperhead paper in the country has hunted up its old rusty rooster, to put at the head of its columns to crow over the recent State elections. Let them crow now, it will only make their retreat the more ridiculous next November, as they go sneaking back to their holes, when they hear of the States coming in for Grant.

There is a field on the donation claim of J. J Burton, in Yamhill county, that has been cultivated twenty three consecutive years. This land has never been manured, though it still produces large crops of grain No better farming land can be found in the State than that on the North Yamhill.

Pulpit Politicians

It is noticeable that whenever a clergyman whose political views accord with the principles of the Republican party happens to say a word that can by any sort of interpretation be made to bear on the subject of politics, the "Democracy" at once begin to defame and vilify him and to raise an outcry against all such, as "political preachers," and the "blood hounds of Zion" Not so when a Democratic preacher takes part in politics The Copperhead clergy are exempt from such criticism For instance one of them in 1861 wrote and published in a Democratic paper at Albany a ballad extolling the rebels for their exploits at Bull Run, characterizing the National troops as "the enemy," and calling Davis and Beauregard "the glory of the land" Not a word of rebuke had a single Democratic paper in the State for this precious production or its author But suppose a Union clergyman had written a ballad characterizing as traitors those who were in Democratic estimation "the glory of the land," what a howl of denunciation would have been heard from Copperhead throats! A leaf from the recent political history of California will illustrate the Copperhead habit of doing things of this sort. All clergymen who dared to say a word in favor of the Republican ticket there were hounded with Democratic vehemence from first to last. And this was done through the Copperhead candidate for one of the most important offices in the State was himself a preacher one who during the rebellion had been a dirty secessionist just like the reverend rebel who published the poetry in this State in 1861 His opponent was a gentleman who was excellently qualified for the position, having filled it for four years to the satisfaction of all the true friends of education in the State But Rev O P Fitzgerald was on the Copperhead ticket as candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction, and getting the votes of the ignorant classes, of all who naturally like secessionists and hate common schools, and of all who disbelieve in the "Puritanical idea" of popular education, he was elected He was elected simply because he had been a rebel and was a hater of the school system of the State. Yet the Copperhead papers there had the effrontery during the campaign to talk of and denounce "pulpit politicians!"

The Copperhead orators are continually asserting that more Democrats than Republicans went to the war Perhaps,—if they count both armies

REPORT OF THE GRAND JURY.—The grand jury presented to the court, yesterday, the following report:

To the Honorable Circuit Court for the county of Multnomah, State of Oregon:

We the Grand Jury of the county of Multnomah respectfully report that we have carefully inquired into all cases where parties have been held to answer before us, and have examined all other charges and offenses which have been brought to our knowledge, or laid before us, and have found and returned into Court, nine "true bills" of indictment.

And we, the Grand Jury, further report that we have carefully inspected and examined the Court rooms, offices, and county jail, and are pleased to find them in such good condition. The county jail has every appearance of security and certainly so well and neatly kept as to reflect great credit on the officers in charge.

We have also visited the Insane Asylum in this county, in which there at the present time, 88 patients, 66 males and 22 females, who are well attended and cared for. The buildings and surroundings of the Asylum are in fine order and first rate condition—a credit to the State, and to Drs. Hawthorne and Loryea, proprietors.

And we regret to say that we find the City Jail, which is all the while crowded with city prisoners, damp and cold, and in a very unhealthy condition—a disgrace to the city of Portland and its police regulations. This institution is a reproach to the city fathers. This institution, as a city jail, is very much out of repair, unsafe and [illegible] its hall and rooms are but poorly lighted; the prisoners are required to sleep upon the floor with but a scanty supply of blankets. And we, the Grand Jury, would respectfully suggest that the Recorder and Justice of the Peace ought to try and dispose of all cases of which they can possibly assume jurisdiction, as that would relieve the higher courts of an undue proportion of business and operate as a great saving of expense to the county. All of which we most respectfully submit, and having no further business before us, beg to be discharged.

SAMUEL SIMMONS,
Foreman of the Grand Jury.

PROGRESS OF THE O. C. RAILROAD.—We are informed by a friend from Hillsboro that the Oregon Central Railroad Company has finally decided to put another surveying party into the field, in order to expedite the surveys. Two lines are to be run through Yamhill and Polk counties, and a location of not less than one hundred miles of route from Portland made before the surveyors leave the field. An office for the transaction of the company's business is to be opened at Portland in a few days, and Assistant Engineer Robert Randall, recently arrived from California, will go into the office to prepare the maps and estimates from the field notes sent in from the engineers in the field. The President of the company was instructed to [illegible] from a railroad contractor in California to furnish the iron and rolling stock for the first twenty miles. The [illegible] of the company has been required to give bonds in the sum of fifty thousand dollars. Letters have been received by the company showing a great interest in the enterprise in all the counties [illegible], and offers of aid by [illegible]. Chief Engineer Ennis has [illegible] Forest Grove and is now reconnoitering Wapato Lake, in order to select the best ground. We are assured that notwithstanding the opinion of the Oregon City Enterprise, the farmers of the counties of Washington, Yamhill and Polk can and will build 20 miles of road.

A [illegible] FORTUNE.—A gentleman of our acquaintance from up the valley yesterday related to us a somewhat singular case of robbery, in which a ground "varmint" figured. A Mr. Martin, of Linn county, having about $600 in American twenties in his possession, was a little afraid to keep it about the house, and for safe keeping he buried it under an apple tree in his orchard, having put it up in a can for the purpose. A few days ago, wanting to use some money, he went to make a draft on his bank under the apple tree. After removing the covering he was astonished beyond measure, and greatly alarmed, to find that every one of the [illegible] was gone. [illegible], he went to the house and told his wife of [illegible]. Naturally [illegible], the lady wanted to go and see the place, and so, together, they went to the tree, [illegible] the [illegible], but nothing could be found, save the can. In [illegible], however, they found a [illegible] hole which seemed to have communicated with [illegible] idea occurred to one of them [illegible] the ground, following [illegible] feet from the [illegible] to the great joy of the pair, they struck [illegible] resulted in the recovery of [illegible].

FROM NEW MINES.—Mr. Noon, who arrived a few days since from Warren's Diggings, informs us that a short time before he left, a couple of men from his camp, [illegible] Gr— and Bl—, had [illegible] and [illegible] a new mining camp in the Payette valley, [illegible] miles [illegible] of Placerville. This is about half way between Placerville and Warrens. The dirt prospected from five to ten cents to the pan, in shallow diggings and with good facilities for working. The pay [illegible] to $12 [illegible]. Mr. Graham, who came down with Mr. Noon, and a brother of Mr. Blevins, one of the [illegible], started from here yesterday morning to go back to the new camp, intending to winter there. Mr. Graham intends to build a saw mill for supplying the miners who go there in the spring, with lumber. About [illegible] men will winter there, [illegible] spring [illegible] to admit of work, many others [illegible] to go. Nothing can be done in the way of mining till the winter shall be over. Mr. Graham and [illegible] that the Payette where they prospected is one of the most beautiful valleys they ever saw, and that it has large bands of [illegible] grazing and farming.

[illegible] COURT.—A somewhat amusing incident occurred in the Circuit Court yesterday afternoon. Mr. [illegible] had just [illegible] to the jury in a certain case, when a man in the audience rose up saying in a loud voice, "Well, that's a powerful poor speech, and I [illegible] ain't got no more use for me—I'm goin'." The Judge ordered the Sheriff to arrest the man for contempt of Court. When asked why he interrupted the [illegible], he attributed it all to the fact that Webfoot whisky had got the best of him. The Judge fined him [illegible] or twenty-four hours' confinement. The Sheriff was about to take him off when the Judge called him back and asked the man his name. "William Adams," said he, "but I'm not any relation to W. L. Adams, of [illegible]." The Judge, after remarking to the man that he ought to know better than to disturb the proceedings of the Court, told him he would be placed [illegible] for twenty-four hours, unless he should pay the fine. "Now, go slow, Judge," said the man, "don't pile it on; judge not, lest ye be judged," and was going on when the Judge cut his speech short by ordering the Sheriff to take him away.

VANCOUVER ITEMS.—The following items are from the Vancouver Register: Vancouver Fire Engine Co. No. 1, will give a grand ball on Thanksgiving Evening at the Gem Hall. Two cisterns have been completed by order of the Q. M. D., so situated that water can at all times be within reach of all the property of said department when threatened by fire. The Common Council let a contract on Monday for the construction of a cistern capable of containing 800 barrels of water, to be located at the junction of Main and Fifth streets, in the vicinity of Mr. Wintler's store. Contract price, $430 .... We regret to be obliged to announce that Mrs. [illegible], wife of W. M. [illegible], Esq. of this county, committed suicide on the evening of Sunday last by hanging herself. Mr. [illegible] and family are among our early settlers, having resided in this county since 1852. The lady is one of high [illegible] respectability, [illegible] sadly afflicted for three years past by the insanity of the wife and mother. All efforts to restore her to sanity failed, and although the fears of [illegible] have been verified in the manner stated above.

OREGON CITY ITEMS.—We clip the subjoined items from the Oregon City Enterprise: Mr. J. T. Wortley has accepted the position of Superintendent of the Woolen Factory in this city, and will soon leave for the East. It has been decided that the lecturers will [illegible] the course to be given in this city the [illegible] under the direction of the fraternity of Odd Fellows. The following gentlemen will each deliver a lecture: Hon. Geo. L. Woods, Hon. A. C. Gibbs, Rev. Dr. [illegible] and Rev. P. S. Knight of Salem, Rev. G. C. [illegible] of Portland, Hon. W. W. Upton, Hon. J. H. [illegible], Hon. J. N. Dolph, Prof. S. C. Simpson and O. F. [illegible], Esq. The subjects will be announced by the lecturers as they may determine upon them. The first lecture will probably be given on the evening of December 2d, and continue once a week thereafter until the course is [illegible]. A season ticket will cost but $2 50; single tickets 50 cents each; ladies free.

CIRCUIT COURT—SHATTUCK, JUDGE.—The following are the proceedings of yesterday in the Circuit Court:

Wm. Ores and Alfred, Executors of the will of Thomas [illegible] vs. Benjamin Stark; action on covenant in [illegible] tried by the Judge; finding for the plaintiff of the sum of $1,447 40, damages. Page for plaintiffs; [illegible] for defendant.

[illegible] G. Elliott vs. G. H. Belden; on the motion of [illegible], cause continued till next term. Mitchell, Dolph, & [illegible] for plaintiff; Logan for defendant.

[illegible] & Davis vs. California State Telegraph Co.; motion for a new trial overruled and judgment rendered on the verdict of jury, for $12 34; exception noted. Strong for plaintiff; Page for defendant.

J. B. Ma[illegible] vs. F. Duvernoy and Leon Vial, garnishees; submitted to the jury.

The grand jury submitted their report and were discharged.

A LETTER FROM MAJOR ECKERSON.—The Vancouver Register mentions the receipt by Major Francis of a letter from Maj. T. J. Eckerson who with his family left here some two or three months since for the East. The Register says: "The Major and his family reached New York after a pleasant passage of twenty-two days from San Francisco. The Major speaks of 'joyful meetings with relatives and friends.' He also says 'we look back to our Oregon [illegible] with many regrets.' He expects to spend some time in Washington after Congress assembles; his address is 'care of Gen. R. Ingals, 19 State street, New York.' The Major is pleasantly remembered by his many friends here in and out of the military service, and they will be glad if occasion ever offers, to greet his return to this field. His present order of service is at Little Rock, Arkansas."

MILITARY ORDERS.—The following General Orders are issued from the Head Quarters of the Department of the Columbia:

General Orders, No. 37—First Lieutenant Richard P. St[illegible], 7th U. S. Infantry, is hereby relieved from duty as Aide-de-Camp and Acting Assistant Adjutant General at these Head Quarters.

He will proceed without delay, via the Isthmus of Panama, to Washington, D. C., and report in person at Head Quarters of the Army.

General Orders, No. 38—Pursuant to Special Order, No. 219, current series, Head Quarters of the Army, the undersigned hereby relinquishes command of the Department of the Columbia to Brevet Major General L. H. [illegible], U. S. A.

MUSICAL AND EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTE.—The second session of Gooh's Musical and Educational Institute will commence on Monday, the 2d day of December, proximo. We learn that the patronage during the session just closing has been very gratifying to the conductors. Prof. G. needs no commendation beyond what his past connection with the Institute gives him, to insure the future prosperity of the school.

ANOTHER RAILROAD COMPANY.—Articles of incorporation for another railroad company, were yesterday drawn up and signed in this city. The company is organized for the purpose of constructing a railroad beginning at Portland and thence up the valley via Eugene City and to connect in Nevada with the Central Pacific Railroad via the Middle Fork of the Willamette river. The capital stock is fixed at $5,000,000 and the principal business office and machine shops of the company are to be located at Portland. The articles are signed by Messrs. W. S. Ladd, Henry Failing, A. C. Gibbs, W. H. Odell, S. Ellsworth, J. A. Chapman and A. P. Ankeny. The articles will be filed to-day in the office of the Secretary of State at Salem.

VERY CLEAR AND EXPLICIT.—One of our up-country friends has been stopping at the American Exchange. Yesterday, being about to go across the river, our up-country friend took a precautionary measure, in the nature, we presume, of life insurance or something of that sort. Walking up to the desk, he bawled out, "See here, Mr. Clerk! Mr. Clerk! I'm going across the river, and if I'm not back, I want to be called in time for the Oregon City boat." Mr. Clerk assured him that if he didn't get back, he would call him; and our up-country friend went across the river, satisfied that everything was lovely.

CHANGE IN COMMAND.—In another place will be found the order issued by Brevet Major General Steele, by which he vacates the command of this military department to Maj. Gen. L. H. Rousseau. Gen. Rousseau was expected to arrive, possibly, last evening, but he did not come and may therefore be looked for certainly to-day, from Olympia, via Monticello. He left Olympia by stage on the morning of Thursday, and probably arrived at Monticello yesterday, but not in time to come up by the Rescue. Upon his arrival here he will probably issue an order, immediately, assuming command of the department.

ACCIDENTALLY DROWNED.—We learn from a friend at Hillsboro, that on Wednesday last Mr. H. Quick lost his life under the following circumstances: At about 4 o'clock P. M., Mr. Quick left the saw mill in which he was engaged and went out on the boom to get a log, from which he slipped into the dam under the tongs. His body was found at about 7 o'clock P. M. the same day, and was buried at the Masonic Cemetery near Hillsboro on Friday. Mr. Quick leaves a wife and one child and numerous friends to mourn his untimely death. The county has lost an energetic and faithful citizen.

PERSONAL.—A day or two since we met Mr. Stephen Maxson, one of the representatives from Walla Walla county to the Washington Territory Legislature. Mr. Maxson is one of the earliest acquaintances we can remember. When a mere child, we knew him in our native village in New York, and later for a few years in Wisconsin. It had been almost twenty years since we had last seen him. He is a permanent resident of Walla Walla valley, a man of sterling integrity, good ability, and will make a useful representative.

PRODUCE.—The steamer Alert brought down from Oregon City yesterday 2,961 sks flour, 304 sks wheat, 563 boxes apples, 93 hlf bbls apples and lard, 30 sks feed, 66 sks bacon, 10 boxes eggs, 20 sks potatoes, 8 bales woolen goods. On Thursday she brought 951 boxes apples, 395 sks wheat, 15 sks barly, 41 sks feed, 30 bbls beef, 17 boxes eggs, 9 boxes lard, 8 bales and cases woolens.

MATINEE THIS AFTERNOON.—Wizard Martin, in order to accommodate ladies and children, will give a grand Matinee at Oro Fino Hall, this afternoon, at two o'clock. The day is quite as favorable as the evening for seeing the Professor's magical tricks. He defies gas light and day light and the sharpest eyes to detect how he plays them. Go and see him this afternoon.

FIRE ALARM.—Martin the Wizard last evening sent up a small paper balloon which, in descending, fell upon the roof of a house near by, and the paper taking fire, blazed up very brightly for an instant, causing an alarm of fire. Of course, before the engines could be got out, the flimsy material was consumed and no fire was to be found.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT—DEADY, JUDGE.—Proceedings of Friday, Nov. 22d:

J. Sell— et al, vs. Green C. Davidson; judgment rendered in favor of plaintiffs for the sum of $601 73.

E. A. Pi..., Esq., admitted to practice as an attorney.

Court adjourned to the first Monday of December.

THE FESTIVAL.—The bills against the festival held by the ladies of the Presbyterian church and congregation, were all ascertained and settled yesterday, when it was found that the nett proceeds of the festival were exactly $450. The managers feel grateful for the generosity of the public.

SENT TO THE HOSPITAL.—Roberts, the principal witness in the case of the State vs. Jos. Taylor, was sent, a day or two since, to the county hospital. He had no money and is in a broken condition of health, consequent upon the spree in which he lost his money.

CASTINGS.—We learn that the experiment of casting direct from the smelting furnace at Oswego, has been made this week with perfect satisfactory results.

BERMAN'S new Fall and Winter styles of Clothing have just arrived by the [illegible], and will be opened to-day. All who have been waiting for the latest and best styles, can get them by calling at Berman's, corner of Front and Morrison.

Those who desire FIRST-CLASS work might do well to give him a call. He produces a NEW AND IMPROVED VULCANITE PLATE, the nature of his improvement consists in lining the entire concave surface with fine gold; it makes the plate twice as strong and one third times thinner than the common vulcanite plate. It also prevents the acids of the mouth from roughing the plate, and from turning it black, which is a common occurrence. One-half of the common vulcanite plates turn black after being in use a short time, particularly where tobacco is used for smoking. His new style of plate admits of a very fine finish on the concave or palate surface. His office is the only place where such work can be had. The improvement is his own invention, for which he has made application to the United States Patent Office for a patent. He has been making this style of work for the last two and a half years, and has specimens of the work which can be seen at his residence and office on Third street. This work has given satisfaction in every case.

OREGONIANS should test the merits of DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. While it is highly palatable as a beverage, it is unequalled as a tonic and invigorator. In the pursuit of fortune at the mines, many persons are exposed to attacks of the digestive organs, and of various kinds of fever. It is the very article that has so long been in demand at the mines. Its daily use will restore the tone of a deranged stomach, impart fresh vitality to the digestive functions, and cheer the spirits. Yet the Bitters are the safest of all stimulants. Let the miner who is exposed to hot and dry, wet and cold, be certain to obtain a supply of the genuine Hostetter Bitter, and he will find it a certain safeguard to health.—Sold by Druggists and dealers everywhere.

PERRY DAVIS' VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER.
THE UNIVERSAL REMEDY FOR INTERNAL AND EXTERNAL COMPLAINTS!

At this period there are but few of the human race unacquainted with the merits of the Pain Killer; but while some extol it as a liniment, they know but little of its power in easing pain when taken internally, while others use it internally with great success, but are equally ignorant of its healing virtues when applied externally. We therefore wish to say to all that it is equally successful whether used internally or externally, and it stands alone, unrivalled by all the great catalogue of Family Medicines, and its sale is universal and immense. The demand for it from India and other foreign countries is equal to the demand at home, and it has become known in these far off places by its merits.

Progress of American Manufactures.

Ornamental buttons for ladies' wear occupy a place in commerce little thought of, and so extensive has the business become, that they form almost the exclusive stock of some wholesale dealers, who have at times from $40,000 to $100,000 worth on hand. The immense variety and the large investments in fancy buttons is astonishing. They are both imported and domestic, and the imports amount to $40,000 a month, equal to three-quarters of a million of dollars in currency per annum. Here and in Europe much of the work is done by women and girls, the youngest girls sometimes being most expert, and in all departments they are assisted by machinery. Large quantities in this country are made in Waterbury and Bridgeport, Conn., and in Newark and New Brunswick, N. J. The following are the varieties made: Cloak, dress, horn, India-rubber, jet, silk, crotchet and bead, mirror and crystal, glass, ivory, steel, agate, and brass; also, velvet in all varieties, made in this city, in Bridgeport, and in New England generally, with which Europeans cannot compete; silk of almost every color and style are also made here, and pearl, from the shirt button to the elegant mantilla, which are made in Europe, and which range in price from 25 cents to $120 a gross.

This season the cloak buttons of our domestic manufacture are ahead of anything our workmen have ever done before, and they have been more largely used than the imported, except the jet button, which generally comes from Europe. The use of jet imported buttons is greater than all other fancy buttons combined. They are wholly made in [illegible]. Here is an opportunity for our inventors to supply a home demand. The [illegible] of fancy buttons run as high as [illegible] and $150 a gross. Still, judgment [illegible] it is apparent to us, in considering not [illegible] this, but other manufactured articles, [illegible] should have more assistance if more young [illegible] schools of design, [illegible] decide the value of an [illegible] the market. Sometimes [illegible] will [illegible] money in [illegible] do not take; but if the contrary [illegible] will have an article which will [illegible] the entire season [illegible] it is sure to [illegible] its way on the shelves of every [illegible], no matter how large the stock of other kinds may be.

Silk crotchet and jet [illegible] largely in our country, [illegible] and silk [illegible] furnish [illegible] who do the work at home. [illegible] crystal [illegible] some of which [illegible] and sell [illegible] eight to twelve [illegible] a gross are of English, [illegible] manufacture. Glass buttons make heavy [illegible] for the spring and [illegible] rivaling some of the best designs of [illegible] and at prices which prohibit importation. In horn buttons the [illegible] of design and [illegible]. One will be surprised that no horn [illegible] in America, where [illegible] but the Yankee has got up [illegible] styles. [illegible] very popular in South America, are of dark colors, and foreigners have hard work to compete with the Yankee. Steel buttons are made [illegible] the [illegible] of a pin head to that of a half [illegible]. We, however, make what are called "steel [illegible]," used for [illegible] ladies' dresses, [illegible] answers all purposes of the imported, and [illegible] cost. Agate buttons, both plain and pearly white, are made of a mineral substance, in France only. India rubber are of [illegible] domestic work; large quantities are made, [illegible] ready market in all parts of the world, and they rival the French horn. They are made [illegible] at New Brunswick, N. J. Brass [illegible] though [illegible] now worn, [illegible]. At the last [illegible] all the army buttons were made during the war. Crotchet [illegible] are [illegible] by hand.

Dress trimmings are so clearly allied to buttons that they are sold by the same establishment. [illegible] are very fashionable and becoming, and [illegible] they [illegible] taken off and used on other [illegible]. The prices range from [illegible] to $10 a yard. The use of foreign [illegible]. Such are the leading facts with regard to the [illegible]. To get a [illegible] idea of the business, one should make a visit to Mr. Hartshill's [illegible] will be [illegible] to find the articles in endless variety, [illegible] and in quantities, so to [illegible], by the ton.—N. Y. Tribune.

Two Occasions when Gen. Grant was Angry.—No man in the army [illegible] control over himself than Gen. Grant. Gen. Webster, his chief of staff, [illegible] that during his long and intimate [illegible] with him he never saw him [illegible] any exhibition of temper [illegible] two occasions; once when he detected [illegible] defiling a spring of water near [illegible] after Johnston's [illegible] at Shiloh, [illegible] to Corinth and fortified. [illegible] summoned his Generals to a council of war to [illegible] the best means for dislodging the enemy. One after another was called upon for his views. When Grant [illegible] his plan of attack, Halleck pooh-poohed it in the most insulting and [illegible] manner. The former made no [illegible], however, [illegible] that he keenly felt the indignity, and upon returning to his tent was depressed for hours. He yet made no allusion to the occurrence [illegible] to his chief of staff that Halleck had deeply wronged him. Subsequently, when [illegible] had escaped southward, it became [illegible] apparent to all the generals that had Grant's advice been followed, Corinth would not only have been captured, but Beauregard's army [illegible] have been cut in twain, and the retreat of a portion of it cut off.

The New Orleans Republican advocates the division of the larger sugar plantations of Louisiana among numerous, small proprietors, in the belief that by such a course they can be managed with [illegible]. The [illegible] says:

Let any one travel up the Mississippi a few hundred miles, or up the Teche to Attakapas, and see the present [illegible] of the sugar presses, mills, plantations and negro quarters, all languishing and [illegible] once be seen [illegible] that [illegible] never can be revived, or the wonderful [illegible] areas of these rich sugar lands be developed, until there are fewer large plantations and more [illegible] of this rich soil.

English [illegible] will [illegible] at the New York Academy for six weeks, beginning in December.

A New York letter says the Galaxy magazine in the last two years has lost $25,000.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

WEEKLY REVIEW.

PORTLAND, FRIDAY, Nov. 22, 1867.

There is little or no complaint of a scarcity of money for the [illegible] of trade, though there is, perhaps, very little [illegible]. Just at present, there is not [illegible] demand for it, as jobbers in produce are not disposed to invest heavily, in the present state of the produce markets abroad.

The [illegible] quotes gold in New York on the 20th at 138 at the close of the boards. Legal tenders are 71½@72c.

One of the most important results of our growing export trade in produce is beginning already to be felt. The [illegible] money to pay [illegible] bills for merchandise are [illegible] each month, less, such requirements [illegible] in great part by our produce exports. [illegible] who have [illegible] the [illegible] reports from San Francisco, will have noticed that for months, there has been no [illegible] in making up the sums called for on "steamer days." Of late, the produce shipments have so nearly cancelled the New York bills for merchandise, that steamer days come and go with scarcely a ripple in the financial current. It used to be said that the [illegible] drain of money to pay for imported goods was the great curse of this [illegible] the revolution now [illegible] on in the [illegible] trade [illegible] the curse and turning the tide [illegible] flows in our favor. As we have [illegible] the difference thus far this year, in our favor, as against New York alone, is above $8,000,000. The tide cannot turn again the other way until a more than [illegible] harvest shall occur in the Atlantic States and throughout Europe.

We have to [illegible] this week a decided falling off in the [illegible] jobbing trade. Groceries are the only goods that may not be [illegible] either quiet or dull. There has been very little doing in wheat or flour, partly because there have limited opportunities for shipping, but chiefly in [illegible] of the quiet [illegible] of the market below. It is understood that shippers of fruit will have the preference by the Sierra Nevada upon her present trip, on account of the perishable nature of the produce. It is probable she will very nearly clear the market of [illegible] apples.

The merchandise shipments to the interior, for the week, have been the [illegible]. Trade with the mining country has [illegible] closed for the year. It held out a month later than had been anticipated and [illegible] are not [illegible] to complain at the results of their fall trade.

Unlike any other class of goods, groceries are still active, jobbers are still having all they can do to turn out orders as wanted. Stocks and assortments are, in general, in good supply, and interior dealers can depend upon prompt responses to all their orders. No changes in quotations.

Dry goods are generally rather quiet and in some lines, dull. Cotton goods are rather weaker, though we allow quotations to remain as at last report. It is probable that next week the figures may be reduced somewhat. Woolen goods are without change.

We quote the following from the commercial reports of the San Francisco papers of the 16th inst., brought to hand by the last steamer:

The exports of produce and merchandise at this time last year reached a value of 14½ millions of dollars and by the close of the year, 17,100,000. It was an amount far in excess of the produce sales of any previous year. This year, however, the sum of the exports already equals that for the whole of last year. The time is not distant when the general products of the State will equal the treasure exports. It is possible that the produce exports for the year may equal the gold product of this State.

The steamer America carries to New York, leather to the value of $1,951, to San Juan 402 qr sacks flour, value $1,252 30.

The exports to New York per the Morning Herald embrace 11,737 qr sks flour, 22,529 sks wheat, 268 bales wool, wine, etc., value, $115,882 36.

The export to Honolulu per Magnolia, embrace a value of $591 78.

The exports by the P. M. S. S. Co's steamer Constitution for New York, consisted of 290 bales of wool, 690 hides, 498 hf chests tea, etc., valued at $61,445 79; to Panama, 1,150 qr sks flour, etc., etc., valued at $9,112,-90; to Manzanillo, a value of $5,941 63; to Punta Arenas, a value of $737 70; to Havre, whalebone, valued at $1,200.

The steamer Idaho, from Honolulu, Nov 2d, reports the exports of sugar and molasses, January 1st to November 1st, as follows:

Sugars, lbs .... 14,980,803 | Molasses, galls. 499,527

In domestic produce the receipts are 7,907 sks wheat, 2,384 qr sks flour and 350 sks barley. The market remains very unsettled, notwithstanding the higher rates quoted from Liverpool.

Wheat—To the prolonged and total want of suitable tonnage is to be ascribed the present depressed state of this market, notwithstanding, the Liverpool quotation again stands at 17s per cental, and although there is general confidence felt here in the correctness of the above figures, speculators are not in a position to continue operating until export facilities allow them to draw on the grain shipped and render them able again to enter the market as purchasers. Up to the present time, however, we cannot note any appreciable change in prices since our last. Holders remain firm in their pretensions, and in view of the late advices from England and Europe are unwilling to make concessions, in most instances preferring to store rather than force parcels upon the market. Sales, which have been extremely limited since our report of the 8th inst., include 100 sks fair shipping at $2 45; 800 do choice do at $2 55; 200 do good do at $2 50, 50 do do at $2 50, 100 do seed at $2 65; 200 do seed at $2 67½; 450 do fair coast at $2 30; 506 do poor at $2 25.

Since harvest, we have received from Oregon 26,442 bbls flour, and 6,416 sks wheat; and since January 1st, 1867, 38,050 bbls of flour, and 17,724 sks of wheat.

The new steamship Oriflamme, of the Opposition Line to Panama, to sail on the 26th inst., offers to carry flour to New York at $2 50 ℘ bbl, being $1 ℘ bbl less than the rates charged per Pacific Mail Steamship Co.

Sugar—Imports from January 1st to Nov. 15th: Hawaiian, lbs 11,781, pkgs 13,372; Manila, lbs 3,476,616; Batavia, lbs 2,712,046; China, lbs 63,006; Central American, lbs 1,006,611; Siam, lbs 152,140; Peruvian, lbs 2,640,921, pkgs 1,229; Mexican, lbs 97,500; Domestic, bbls 827.

We have no sales of importance to record. The only [illegible] in Raws coming to our knowledge are sales of 300 hf bbls Hawaiian at 11½@12 ℘ lb. The demand for [illegible] upon local companies is up to the full average of past seasons, no one sale being of any considerable magnitude, yet the aggregate foots up handsomely at the end of the week. Prices have [illegible] no change in a month, say 14½—14¾c for Crushed; Yellow and Golden [illegible] 11½@12½c ℘ lb. The stock of raw sugars in first [illegible] is very small, nor do all the refineries combined carry anything like their usual full complement. There are, however, two or more cargoes known to be en route from Manila, and as many more from Peru, etc. At the close, the propeller Idaho, thirteen days from Honolulu, has arrived, bringing for cargo, 2,452 bags of sugar to the refinery, and 1,857 bbls grocery grades to various [illegible].

Apples. The cargo of 1,000 bxs from Oregon, by the Sierra Nevada, sold at an average of $1 00 per box of 40 lbs.

Wool. Our market is exceedingly quiet. The few sales [illegible] at extremely low [illegible] the Fall clip—9½@12c for clean and 7½@9c per lb for burry. Recent advices from the East seem to be more encouraging to shipping buyers of the Fall clip, while of Spring clip we note sales of 40,000 lbs at 15@16½c; 40,000 lbs, Fall, 10@12½ lbs do burry, at 8c ℘ lb.

Potatoes—There is considerable complaint about worms, even from the North. We quote the range of the market for all the various kinds at $1 75 ℘ 100 lbs; 500 sks Tomales sold at $1 25.

In glancing over the general [illegible] sales for the past ten days, we note but little to excite [illegible]. Agricultural Implements are in better [illegible], though not active. For boots [illegible] and [illegible] clothing, there is a fair inquiry. The dry goods [illegible] is well [illegible]. In drugs, paints, oils and [illegible], there is a moderate business. General hardware is in light request at steady prices. Building materials are in good [illegible], as a [illegible] of the numerous [illegible] in progress throughout the city. [illegible] and [illegible] move off slowly. [illegible] their supremacy [illegible] the most [illegible] articles in the merchandise list; and yet in [illegible] already [illegible]. On the [illegible] both from first and second hands, during the past ten days, [illegible] of little importance.

Bronchitis,

THE ROYAL BALSAM!

HAS NOW BEEN BEFORE THE PUBLIC FOR A length of time, and wherever used is highly recommended, never failing in a single instance to give permanent relief when timely used; and we have never known a single case of dissatisfaction, but, on the contrary, all are delighted with it and speak in the highest terms of its magical effects. The astonishing efficacy of the ROYAL BALSAM, in curing the diseases for which it is recommended entitles it to the highest rank among the list of medicines, and no family can be without it after once trying it.

Read the following testimonials from some of the most prominent citizens of Oregon:

MIRACULOUS CURE.

DR. HENLEY—Dear Sir: I feel it but a duty to inform you and the public what a miraculous effect your Royal Balsam had on my wife. She had been affected with a severe cough for several weeks, which had assumed a dangerous feature, for which many physicians have been trying without any material benefit, and all the remedies failed to give her any relief. Without relief was got I feared for the worst, in her present condition. The cough appeared to be worse at night, she could get no rest when Mr. Randall, of this place, advised me to try your Royal Balsam; all other remedies having failed, I concluded to try it, and I purchased two bottles. Strange to say, by the time I gave her three spoonfuls of the Balsam she got relief, and slept, a thing she had not done for three nights previous. By the time she had taken one bottle the cough was checked. Its effect was truly miraculous, as the cure was effectual. hence, I have no hesitation in recommending the Royal Balsam to all who are afflicted, and it [illegible] astonishing to me that medicine of such great merit, and I might say magical effect, is not more in use. My candid opinion is, if persons use it once, they never be without it in the house.

[illegible], March 1, 1867. H. COCHRAN.

From Wm. Doty.

North Yamhill, July 15, 1867.

DEAR DR. HENLEY—It is with sincere gratitude I undertake to write to you, what your Royal Balsam has done for me. For the last 12 years I have been afflicted with a severe cough and what also some of the physicians called the Bronchitis, and have spent a fortune to get cured, trying all the physicians and all the medicines I could get to no purpose. Through the influence of my neighbors (for you have a great name with them here,) I got a bottle of your Royal Balsam and finding that it relieved me considerable I sent for a half dozen more. And now after one month using it I am perfectly cured. I gained ten pounds within a month and feel quite a different man. I send you this for publication for the benefit of humanity, that through my experience others in affliction may be relieved as I have been. Yours truly,

WILLIAM DOTY.

From Sophia M. Holman.

DEAR DR. HENLEY—It is my duty to inform you and the public, what a miraculous effect your Royal Balsam had on my children. Two of them had a very bad cough and cold, I got a bottle of the Royal Balsam, and gave them some at bedtime and some in the morning, and that was all that was needed to cure them. I was astonished at not hearing them cough again, but so it was. I find if you give it in larger doses it will make the children throw up in an instant, and I think every mother ought to have a bottle of your Royal Balsam in the house, in case a child should get the croup for which it is a sure remedy, as it acts like magic on children. What I have seen and heard from my neighbors about the Royal Balsam I would sooner depend on it than on any prescription from any physician. I have lost two children within the last year of the same disease, had I had at the time some of the Royal Balsam I am confident my dear ones would be alive now. I shall always recommend it to all my friends, for I consider it a blessing and Godsend to mankind.

Yours truly, SOPHIA M. HOLMAN.

From Drs. Bell & Parker.

We have sold a great deal of Medicine since we have been in business, and now have fifteen different kinds of Expectorants for sale. But Dr. Henley's Royal Balsam takes the palm from all. In fact, we sell six bottles of Royal Balsam to one of any other kind—and really it seems of no use to keep any other. During our experience we have never seen any medicine that gives the satisfaction the Royal Balsam does, as is proven by the results daily coming in from the country of old Chronic cases, when nothing else would remove the dreadful cough they had. I find it is good for Bronchitis and Asthma. We acknowledge it is a pleasure to sell medicine that gives such universal satisfaction.

BELL & PARKER,
Druggists, Oregon City

From W. F. Barber.

DR. HENLEY—Dear Sir: I had the Asthma for the last four years, so bad that it came near choking me. I tried all the patent medicines recommended for the cure of Asthma without doing me the least good, till I was told to try some of your Royal Balsam, which on several afflicted with the same disease, has performed wonders. I am using it now for a week and strange to say I have not experienced anything since, and I really believe that I am perfectly cured, anyhow I shall never be without a bottle of the Royal Balsam in the house in case of a similar attack, and I have no hesitation in recommending it to all afflicted with the same disease.

I am Yours truly,
W F BARBER

From J. H. Morril.

DEAR DR. HENLEY—I think it but justice to you that these few lines should be made known to the public, for there is so much humbug going on in patent medicines and quack nostrums now-a-days that I had lost all faith in everything in the shape of medicine. I was affected with what is called Bronchitis for the last thirty years, I coughed and wheezed for an hour at a time, I tried some of the best physicians in the Atlantic States and on this coast all to no purpose. I could get no relief, and I really thought there was no relief for me in the world. I was induced to try a bottle of your Royal Balsam and it had a most remarkable effect on me, and before I had used up four bottles, the cough left me and I can talk as loud as anybody; my wife and neighbors don't know what to make of it. My opinion is that if they knew the value of the Royal Balsam there is not a family in the country that would be without it. I think there is not a better medicine in existence for Bronchitis or cough than the Royal Balsam, and I conscientiously recommend to all so afflicted to give it a fair trial.

I remain yours, truly,
J. H. MORRIL.

RENNICK'S SITKA LINIMENT!

THE MOST REMARKABLE DISCOVERY EVER MADE!

Will Cure All Pains in a Few Minutes!

Read the Certificates!

SPRAINED WRIST CURED.

PORTLAND, August 10, 1867.

I was at Mr. Wegner's store on Saturday, August 10th, and seeing the magic effect of J. G. RENNICK'S SITKA LINIMENT, in his case, concluded to try it on my wrist which has been sprained for some time. I found relief inside of FIVE MINUTES from its application, and it is now perfectly well. My wrist was so swelled I could not shut my fingers. I believe it will cure any pain in a short time. I will give any further particulars to whoever calls on me.

VINCENT McCULLOUGH,
Corner of Fifth and College streets.

Tumor Removed!

PORTLAND, August 10th, 1867.

I HAVE USED RENNICK'S SITKA LINIMENT for pain and swelling of the gum and cheek. I had a large tumor forming on the gum which arose from killing the nerve in my tooth and caused me a dreadful pain which prevented me from sleep for several nights. I applied the Liniment, and to my surprise, it removed the lump and eased the pain so that it is now as well as the other cheek. My cheek was fearfully swollen. This was done in the presence of two witnesses.

I. MITCHELL.

PORTLAND, August 12th, 1867.

For five years I have suffered with a pain or weakness in my back, which at times was dreadful. I often thought I could not bear such torment. But I got a bottle of RENNICK'S SITKA LINIMENT, and with one rub it perfectly cured me. I can recommend it to any lady suffering from pains in any way, for I am convinced it will at once remove them. FORE COLIN,
Corner of Fourth and Taylor streets.

Any person who does not believe this can call, and I will convince them.

Rheumatism Cured!

State of Oregon, County of Multnomah, ss.

I JEREMIAH BROCK, BEING DULY SWORN, SAY that I am fifty-three years of age, that I reside in Yamhill County, State of Oregon. I came to Portland on business, on horseback, from my home this morning. When I left home I could scarcely walk or stand on my feet, from Rheumatism, which has afflicted me for the last eight years. I was standing in Wilson's stable, on First street, in this city, when I heard Mr. Rennick's offer to bet that he would take out the Rheumatism in any case in twenty minutes. Rennick offered to bet $100 that he could do it. I went to Mr. Rennick's [illegible] and he applied the Liniment to my leg, and in twenty minutes my leg felt sound and limber, and as well as ever. JEREMIAH BROCK

Subscribed and sworn to before me this August 29th, 1867. O. P. MASON,
